Shows Premiering This Fall

Designated Survivor (ABC)

If you loved watching Sutherland's performance as Jack Bauer in 24, you absolutely cannot miss his ferociously compelling return to TV as "designated survivor," Tom Kirkman, a lower-level cabinet member, who suddenly becomes Commander-in-Chief. It's an enthralling twist on the classic fish-out-of-water tale, and Sutherland stuns in the unprecedented transition from family man to the most powerful man on Earth. The drama seamlessly weaves high-powered White House politics with the adrenaline-pumping elements of a crime thriller.

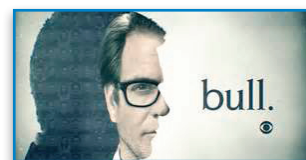

Airs on Wednesdays at 10:00 p.m. on ABC (channels 4 and 204 in HD).

Bull (CBS)

Inspired by the early career of Dr. Phil McGraw, Michael Weatherly returns to CBS as the radical Dr. Jason Bull — the ultimate puppet master as he combines psychology, human intuition and high-tech data to learn what makes jurors, attorneys, witnesses and the accused tick. Weatherly delivers a captivating performance that is unlike anything he's ever done in his career before. Final verdict: We, the jury, vote in favorite of Bull and you should too.

Airs on Tuesdays at 9:00 p.m. on CBS (channels 3 and 203 in HD).

This is Us (NBC)

This Is Us is a refreshingly raw and genuine new series. With four out of the five characters sharing the same birthday, you'll discover that their lives intertwine in curious ways—and you'll fall head over heels in love once you discover the series' big twist. Bottom line: This is the show that everyone will be talking about, so don't miss out on fall's most emotionally satisfying series.

Airs on Tuesdays at 10:00 p.m. on NBC (channels 5 and 205 in HD).

Pitch (Fox)

Pitch is a TV grand slam. This inspiring drama will keep you on the edge of your seat from the very first scene, and you'll be led on an empathetic roller coaster of anxiety, fear, heartbreak and triumph. It's impossible not to root for Bunbury's groundbreaking role as Ginny Baker, the first female pitcher in MLB, and her performance will bring tears to your eyes in more ways than one. Final score: Pitch knocks it out of the park!

Airs on Thursdays at 9:00 p.m. on Fox (channels 7 and 207 in HD).
