WCVT Employees Raise $7,500 for Hurricane Relief

Waitsfield and Champlain Valley Telecom employees donated over $7,500 to the American Red Cross to help with hurricane relief efforts. They raised funds through a company-wide raffle, individual donations, and WCVT's Contribution Committee.

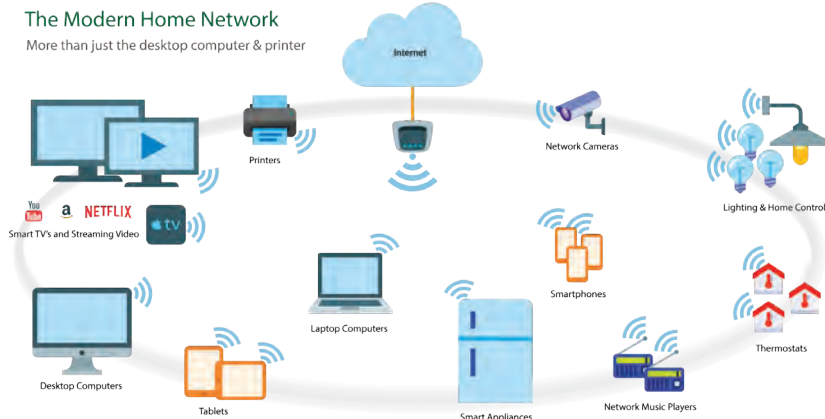

“Our thoughts continue to be with the many people whose lives were so severely impacted by hurricanes in Texas, Florida, and Puerto Rico,” said Gregg Haskin, President and CEO of Waitsfield and Champlain Valley Telecom. “We are extremely proud of our employees’ generosity and willingness to help those in need.”

Great job, Team WCVT!

- Children's Bristol Halloween Party
- Eunice B. Farr Incentive Award Scholarships
- Fill a Backpack Program
- Giving Tree
- Hunter Safety Courses
- Local Schools, Chambers, Civic Organizations
- Mad River Path Association
- Mad River Valley Community Easter Egg Hunt
- Mad River Valley Little League
- Our Community Cares Camp
- Red Cross Blood Drives
- Richmond Area Little League
- Vermont Festival of the Arts
- Vermont Food Bank and Food Shelves in Service Area
- Vermont Special Olympics
- Vermont Youth Conservations Corps

If your organization has a project in the making and is looking for help, contact Lorraine Keener at 496-8379 or lkeener@corp.wcvt.com to discuss the possibility of WCVT participation.

Customer Spotlights

Vee's Flowers and Garden Shop – Waitsfield

The space that was formerly the Mad River Garden Center has re-opened under Valley local, Vee Lynch. Vee's Flowers and Garden Shop is a full-service local florist carrying a wide variety of fresh cut flowers, arrangements, house-plants, greeting cards, wonderful soaps, and other fun gifts. You might even see some antique quilts adorning the walls!

Vee and her skilled staff take pride in their work and are passionate about every detail of every order that customers place. Vee's Flowers and Garden Shop is located at 4036 Main Street in Waitsfield. Shop hours are Monday to Saturday 9:00 a.m. – 5:00 p.m. You can reach them at 496-3334.

Dreamhouse Country Inn – Bristol

It all started with a backpacking trip in 1975 near Gifford Woods, and Dreamhouse Country Inn owners Sue and Steve Alario were hooked! After watching all their grown kids move to Vermont, they decided to follow them to the Green Mountain State. It took some time, but they finally found the perfect place to live and work.

Built in 1852, the inn is on the Historic Register for the State of Vermont and is known as one of the finest examples of Gothic Revival Cottage architecture in the state. Nestled in the middle of six acres of pastoral beauty, it is surrounded by perennial gardens, maple groves, berry bushes, and a rambling old stone wall. Guests will enjoy great food, luxurious rooms, gracious hospitality, and affordable rates. It's also an ideal place for smaller weddings and events. Dreamhouse Country Inn is located on 382 Hewitt Road right outside the village of Bristol. For more information, visit www.dreamhousecountryinn.com or call 453-2805.
