Camping, Starring Jennifer Garner, is Coming to HBO

HBO has announced that the comedy series Camping, starring Golden Globe winner Jennifer Garner and David Tennant, will debut its eight-episode season on October 14. The series is executive produced by Lena Dunham (Girls), Jenni Konner (Girls), and John Rigg, and is based on the British series of the same name created by Julia Davis.

To celebrate her husband Walt's 44th birthday, the obsessively organized and aggressively controlling Kathryn (Garner) gathers together her meek sister, her holier-than-thou ex-best friend and a free-spirited tagalong. What was supposed to be a delightful, back-to-nature camping trip quickly becomes a weekend of tested marriages and woman-on-woman crime that won't soon be forgotten.

Other series regulars include: Juliette Lewis, Arturo Del Puerto, Ione Skye, Janicza Bravo and Brett Gelman.

Premieres on October 14 on HBO
(Channel 400 and 360 in HD).

A year ago, it began broadcasting local events live to YouTube and Facebook, including the Mad River Valley Town Leadership Meeting and Waitsfield's Town Meeting Day.
