Premiering This Fall

Perfect Harmony (NBC)

Bradley Whitford stars in this comedy about finding inspiration in the most unlikely places. When former Princeton music professor Arthur Cochran unexpectedly stumbles into choir practice at a small-town church, he finds a group of singers who are out of tune in more ways than one. Despite the ultimate clash of sensibilities, Arthur and his newfound cohorts may just be the perfect mix of individuals to help each other reinvent and rediscover a little happiness when they need it most.

Airs on Thursdays at 8:30 p.m. (Channel 5).

Emergence (ABC)

A character-driven genre thriller, Emergence is about a police chief who takes in a young child she finds near the site of a mysterious accident who has no memory of what's happened. The investigation draws her into a conspiracy larger than she ever imagined, and the child's identity is at the center of it all.

Airs on Tuesdays at 10:00 p.m. (Channel 4).

Prodigal Son (Fox)

Prodigal Son is a fresh take on a crime franchise with a provocative and outrageous lead character and a darkly comedic tone. The show will follow the life of Dr Malcolm Bright (Tom Payne), a criminal profiler whose father was a serial killer called the "The Surgeon." He was arrested on charges of murdering 23 people when Malcolm was a young boy.

After the FBI fires Malcolm, he's commissioned by an NYPD detective to help him on a case and it turns out, the killer is a copycat of his father. As Malcolm continues to help the police solve the case, he understands himself and his demons better.

Airs on Mondays at 9:00 p.m. (Channel 7).

All Rise (CBS)

All Rise is a courthouse drama that follows the chaotic, hopeful, and sometimes absurd lives of its judges, prosecutors, and public defenders as they work with bailiffs, clerks, and cops to get justice for the people of Los Angeles amidst a flawed legal process. Among them is newly appointed Judge Lola Carmichael (Simone Missick), a highly regarded and impressive deputy district attorney who doesn't intend to sit back on the bench in her new role, but instead leans in, immediately pushing the boundaries and challenging the expectations of what a judge can be.

Airs Mondays at 9:00 p.m. (Channel 3).

Catherine the Great Miniseries to Air on HBO

Catherine the Great, a four-part miniseries starring Helen Mirren (who will also direct and executive produce) will air on HBO this fall. Mirren plays the eponymous Russian empress, whose reign in the late 18th century is widely considered the Golden Age of the old Russian monarchy and a time of rapid rise for the country. The miniseries focuses on Catherine's political machinations, chronicling her rise to power and subsequent rule.

Mirren will be joined by co-star Jason Clarke, who plays Grigory Potemkin, a Russian military leader who came into Catherine's favor as a friend and trusted advisor. This relationship goes back to his support for her during the 1762 coup that removed her husband, Emperor Peter III, from the throne and led to her ascension.

MRVTV 44 Showcases Local Events

This summer, Mad River Valley Television (MRVTV) continued to provide community members with a wide variety of local TV programming, including school and select board meetings, educational workshops, coverage of local events and much more.

On the digital front, MRVTV generates a lot of views on its YouTube channel, especially from the Waitsfield Covered Bridge Webcam. During June and July, the Webcam had 109,000 and 127,000 views, respectively. MRVTV also live streamed the Warren 4th of July Parade to its YouTube channel and the Mad River Valley Chamber of Commerce Facebook page. To date the Parade has 3,420 views on YouTube and 5,359 views on Facebook.

To learn how you can be involved with MRVTV, please contact Executive Director, Keith Berkelhamer or Tony Italiano, Media/Program Manager, at 583-4488 (44TV) or send an email to mrvtv@mrvtv.com. You can also stop by the studio offices at the north end of the Village Square Shopping Center. Visit them at mrvtv.com, subscribe to MRVTV's YouTube channel and newsletter, like their Facebook page and follow them on Twitter and Instagram.
