Call 811 Before You Dig

There may be more than roots underground on your property. All sorts of utility lines, pipes, and cables could be buried there. In some cases, they're close to the surface and easily damaged by even shallow digging, which can result in service interruptions to your neighborhood. That's why every digging job—from planting a bush to installing a fence—requires a call to 811 to have utility lines marked. Simply tell the operator where you're planning to dig and what type of work you'll be doing. The affected local utilities will send a locator to your property, free of charge. Then you'll know what's below and be able to dig safely.

Waitsfield Cable thanks you in advance for your cooperation. To learn more, visit call811.com before you dig.

The Valley is fortunate to have a beautiful field and a dedicated group of volunteers that have provided a safe, fun, and healthy experience in youth baseball for years. When this newsletter went to print, these teams were still planning to play this summer, but a final decision was to be made May 11.

Have a great season, everyone! We hope you can play ball!

Perry Mason Reboot Premieres on HBO in June

HBO is bringing a legendary criminal defense lawyer back to life. HBO's Perry Mason, set to premier on June 21, reimagines the iconic legal drama that was originally conceived by author Erie Stanley Gardner. Set in Los Angeles in 1931 amidst the Great Depression, Perry Mason is just getting started in his career. When the case of the decade breaks down his door, Mason's relentless pursuit of the truth reveals a fractured city and just maybe a pathway to redemption for himself.

The original Perry Mason ran for nine seasons on CBS starring Raymond Burr in the title role. HBO's limited series will star Matthew Rhys as jaded detective Perry Mason; Tatiana Maslany as Sister Alice, the leader of the Radiant Assembly of God; and John Lithgow as Elias Birchard "E.B." Jonathan, a personal attorney who acts as a mentor to Mason.

Perry Mason premieres on HBO (channel 400) on June 21 at 9:00 p.m.
